

Hospitality Hygiene 10

Friendly Farm Restaurant has made a commitment to our employees and guests to follow these 10 best practices moving forward in all of our operations. We have a commitment to not only the excellent standards that we have built this company on, but also an unwavering commitment to the new standard of hygiene set forward by our leaders.

1 Employee Wellness Checks.

We commit to daily employee wellness checks with health surveys. Any employee exhibiting symptoms of elevated body temperature or excessive coughing and sneezing will be prohibited from work until a medical release is given.

2 Mandatory Protective Wear.

All Employees that come in contact with guests are required to wear gloves and protective masks during operations.

3 Reduced Party Sizes.

Party sizes limited to 6 or less.

4 Table Spacing.

Restaurant Floor Plans designed for table spacing according to governmental and CDC guidelines that promote social distancing of 6 Feet.

5 Increase of Sanitization.

All common areas and kitchen surfaces sanitized and cleaned every hour within operations. All customer tables and chairs will be wiped thoroughly after each use.

6 Digital and Disposable Menus.

Menu will be posted on our board in the lobby and disposable paper menus will be available.

7 Table Settings and Disposable Wear Available.

Paper placemats, plastic utensils and disposable condiments will be available upon request.

8 Reservation System.

Tables will be available on a first come first serve basis. We will use phone to let patrons know table is ready. All customers should wait outside in cars until table becomes available.

9 Designated Sanitation Stations.

Sanitized stations will be spaced out within the restaurant.

10 Disease Prevention and Sanitation Training.

Employee education on spread of bacteria and viral pathogens and how to prevent based on CDC guidelines. Increased training will be enforced on hand hygiene, sanitation and its effect to control the spread of the disease.
